

The incidence of catheter-related bloodstream infections in different central venous access devices: a network meta-analysis of randomized controlled trials

Supplementary Figure S1. Study flow chart
PICC – peripherally inserted central catheter, CVC – central venous catheter, TIVAP – totally implantable venous access port.

The incidence of catheter-related bloodstream infections in different central venous access devices: a network meta-analysis of randomized controlled trials